GREEN KYANITE

www.MysticalWares.com

DESCRIPTION/POTENTIAL USES:

Green Kyanite activates your entire chakra column; however, it resonates deeply with one's heart. As restorative energy is channeling from Mother Earth and imbuing your aura, one becomes more aware of their emotional needs. This can also help you develop the strength to let negativity move away from you. Our minds have a "heart of their own" and can control our entire emotional body with little to no power! This is partly due to the trust within our brain, as opposed to pledging all our confidence into a vulnerable, deep-feeling organ such as our heart. One's mind is much easier to be manipulated and can bring about a false reality if left unchecked. Green Kyanite will push the strength that's in your mind down to your entire body which will lead to eventual balance within yourself. This effect provides a much-needed resurgence of courage and love within the body, which happens to be a recipe for ultimate success and happiness. This is because you are not only becoming more aware of yourself, but also how you feel day in and day out. Once you understand the potential of Green Kyanite and the powers that be, only then will the beauty within you shine endlessly for all to see.
